

Good News Outreach

Anthony Carro

Board Member

Anthony Carro has over thirty-five years of accounting experience. He is a licensed CPA in Florida. Although 'semi-retired' he maintains an active consulting practice specializing in forensic accounting, project monitoring and taxation. He was an Associate Professor of accounting at Flagler College Tallahassee; he retired in 2016.

He joined the Good News Outreach board in August of 2019 and was voted treasurer in January 2020.

Prior to teaching, Mr. Carro was the Chief Financial Investigator for the New York County (Manhattan) District Attorney's Office. There he supervised all forensic accounting investigations conducted by that office. There were twenty financial investigators under his supervision. Mr. Carro personally participated in numerous high-profile investigations, including specializing in cases involving labor racketeering and construction industry corruption.